

PROGRAMMA DI INGLESE SVOLTO NELLA CLASSE II A
a.a. 2010 / 2011

Functions

Ripasso: introducing yourself
Talking about recent actions and events
Explaining the purpose of things
Talking about unfinished actions and situations
Making and responding to polite offers, requests and instructions
Booking in to a campsite or hotel
Talking about processing and facts
Talking about everyday activities
Talking about situation and results
Talking about future possibilities
Talking about actions in progress in the past
Talking about permission and obligation
Describing and giving information about people and things
Asking for and giving advice
Talking about unfinished actions

Grammar

Ripasso: simple present; numbers; alphabet; nationalities
Present perfect simple
Adverbs: already, just, still, yet
Purpose: for + ing
Simple past vs Present perfect
How long...?
For, since
Would like
Present simple passive
Preposition by
Modal verbs: will, may, might Modifying adverbs: maybe, perhaps, probably, definitely, certainly Zero and First conditional
If, when, unless
Past continuous
Past continuous vs Past simple
When..., While..., As...
Make, let someone do something, be allowed to Defining relative clauses
Who, which, that
Omission of the relative pronoun
Prepositions in relative clauses
Relative pronoun whose
Modal verbs: should, ought, had/'d better
Present perfect continuous

For, since / How long...?

Vocabulary

Everyday objects

Holidays

The environment

Reading material, types of literature,

Freedom and parental control

Parts of the body

Appearance and self-image

Exercise and fitness

Job qualifications and skills

Culture

Irish Emigration to the USA

History of Ireland: A Timeline and The Emerald Isle

Covent Garden

The Great Fire of London

Alunni

L'insegnante